MD's message

In a journey of success one needs vision, foresight and strategy. It is imperative to combine these forces in order to exceed customer expectation as well as safeguard the interest of other stakeholders.

To have better focus on customer requirements, we have recently re-organized our business with a corporate holding entity and several specialized operating subsidiaries. All the entities in the group endeavor to be one of the most competitive companies in their respective industry with emphasis on efficiency in operations, reliability for customers and thrust on improving existing processes and development of new processes to meet customer needs.

Our means to achieve the above objectives is being met by developing organizations that combine engineering, financial, managerial and operational skills and resources to provide Total Solutions to customers. Our business infrastructure and human capital integrates to deliver robust performance and customer satisfaction as well as provide an impetus to localization and Omanisation of the industry as whole.

Gearing up for the future, we have the key success factors necessary to withstand the winds of change. Today we are equipped with highly skilled and specialized work force in each of the business units - which is reinforced by state-of-the-art infrastructure. Our HR practices are tailored to attract the best talent with big dreams.

Our Management practices are aimed at giving our workforce the support and encouragement they need to reach their full potential.

Our manufacturing capabilities boast of technical prowess, high quality production and cost effectiveness. Our Risk assessment and mitigation practices help us to surmount adverse market conditions dexterously. Our capabilities to deliver projects on time meeting the requirements of Safety and Quality is well appreciated by the Market.

All these endeavors are carried out against the backdrop of a Business Plan developed after detailed research, brainstorming and deliberations.

The success of AI LLC group began with a dream and now supports the dream of many. We strive as a team to accomplish our dreams and goals.
